

Hello Bywood Families & Happy March!

As we are approaching spring I hope you are able to get outside and enjoy the nicer weather with your families! We are having a wonderful start to March! We celebrated Read Across America Week and are currently getting ready to catch Leprechaun's at Bywood the week of March 17th! Be sure to ask your child about their classes plan to trap the Leprechaun!

Please see the information below to support out Home & School and purchase Bywood apparel! The sale will run from March 7th to March 20th!

Looking ahead we will have an early dismissal Wednesday April 6th at 12:20 P.M. and have no school Monday April 11th-15th. for spring break! Continue to check for my Wednesday emails for more information about the upcoming PSSA's for grades 3-5 beginning on April 25-29th

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

MRS. FRANCIS AND MR. KULL'S 5TH GRADE STUDENTS CREATED A GALLERY WALK OF FAMOUS BLACK AMERICANS TO HELP CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH!

Third Grade Olympics

3rd Grade has been participating in Olympic games! Each class raced amongst themselves to find the 2 fastest boys and girls. Then we had the top 2 girls from each class race and the top 2 boys from each class race. Third grade is pretty fast! We had 2 girl winners and 2 boy winners. Every student who competed showed amazing sportsmanship and cheered for their peers!
