Prathyush: Where do people go when they have ruined jerseys?

Answer: New Jersey

New Morning Greeting

Each morning Mr. C or Mr. Rogers greets the entire school in the recess yard. Mr. Rogers has started a new routine for us. He yells, "I expect the best because you are..." and the students respond, "The best!"

Staff Bowling

Our staff has set a faculty goal to create a stronger Primos community. As part of our getting ready for a new school year, the Primos staff met for an afternoon of bowling. Mrs. Crumlish and Mr. Rogers were the pros among us. Mrs. Prestileo did show great form on the lanes after a few tries. But the best entertainment was watching Mrs. Baker roll her bowling bowl down the lane!

Mrs. Host was named the MVP of the Teacher-5th Grade basketball game.

Teacher Training for New HMH Reading Series

Mrs. Pawloski, Mrs. Mooney, Mrs. McMullen, Ms. Mount, Ms. Lardani, Ms. Millett, Ms. Hennessy, Mrs. Host, Ms. Quay, Ms. Chang, and Mrs. Ellis all trained this summer on the new reading series. We are ready to get started!

Space Foreshortening

During the last days of June, Ms. Ceribelli showed 3rd grade students the technique of Space Foreshortening in art class. With Space Foreshortening hands look really big compared to the rest of the body. Look at the body arms and legs of these drawings by Tvisha Jani, Emilee Allen, and Jordyn Beaver.

Into Reading Program 2020

Several Primos teachers spent a few summer days learning about the new district reading program. District supervisors introduced the many new exciting components of the program.

Look for new materials to becoming home with your children. Ask them what they like about our new series.
