Good Evening Drexel Hill Middle School Families,

I hope everyone is enjoying their week and staying dry on this rainy Wednesday! This past Monday was the official start of Marking Period 3, which indicates the half the school year! There's a chance that your student has 1 or more new classes for the marking period, so please be sure to ask them about their new teachers and what they will be learning! In this Wednesday message you will find the following information:

- Grading Timelines
- Cabaret Night
- Future Cities Competition
- Eagles Spirit Day this Friday
- School Support reminders
- Yearbook Ordering Information (attachment)
- DCIU February Parent Training (attachment)
- YMWIC Information (attachment)

Marking Period 2 Grading Timelines

Marking Period 2 Grades will be viewable on Home Access Center (HAC) on February 2, 2023. I originally had given the date of 1/27/23, but grades will not be live based on the district handbook. I apologize for the date change.

Cabaret Night

Thank you to everyone who participated in or attended the Cabaret Night last Friday evening! Our students and staff are truly talented! I am so excited for our school Annie Jr. in the Spring! Please be on the lookout for ticket information to come!

Future Cities Competition

Congratulations to all of our students and staff that participated in the Future Cities Competition this past weekend held at Delaware County Community College. Our students did a wonderful job of representing Drexel Hill Middle School with their future city "Kota Laut". Great Job!

Support Services

Just a reminder that if your student needs additional support at any time, our Pupil Service Team members are always available and happy to help. See Below:
