

Want to Help Your Child Prepare for School?

Talk to Them About How to Be Safe, Be Respectful, and Be Responsible At Westbrook Park!

In the Classroom:

- Someone in class always shouts out the answer. What should they be doing?
What could you do if this happens?
- The student sitting in front of you keeps tipping back on the chair legs. You are worried that he might hurt himself. What is the responsible thing to do?

In the Hallway:

- You've been asked to bring a note to the office and you see a friend going into the bathroom. You want to know if they will be on your team at recess. What do you do?
- You're walking with your class down the hallway. You see last year's teacher and want to say "Hi."
What can you do instead of talking? Why?

In the Restroom:

- You have to use the bathroom and all of the stalls are full. What should you do?
When using the bathroom, always make sure...

In the Cafeteria:

- Your mom packed your favorite chocolate cake in your lunch. Jimmy insists that you give him some or else he won't be your friend. What should you do?
Someone stepped out of line and tries to cut back in. What should you do?
What should he/she have done?

On the Playground:

- Sheila wants to play jump rope but the rest of your group doesn't want her to play because she can't skip well. What would be the respectful thing to do?
- Jordan is up to kick in the kickball game and is nervous because he has not kicked one all week. What is a respectful thing to say to him at the plate? What should you do/say if he misses the ball?

In the Computer/Math Lab:

- You can't hear anything through your headphones. What should you do?
- You are confused by the instructions given on the screen. What should you do?

In the Nurse's Office/Office:

You need to: report a problem, talk to the principal, call home, get ice, lay down (sick), etc.

Want to Help Your Child Prepare for School?

Talk to Them About How to Be Safe, Be Respectful, and Be Responsible At Westbrook Park!

During Arrival Time:

- You see a friend from another class in another line and want to tell them about a new pet.
What do you do?
- You see a group of students gathering and hear that there may be a fight. What should you do? Why?
 - You just found out that your friend is going to fight. What should you do? Why?

In an Assembly:

- The student sitting next to you starts to boo, laugh at an inappropriate time, or talks to you.
What would you do? How should the other student be acting?
 - You are REALLY bored at the assembly. What should you do?

During Dismissal Time:

- You see a friend from another class in another exit line and you want to know if they will be on your team after school. What do you do?
 - You're walking with your class out to the playground and see a friend from last year.
You want to say "Hi." What should you do? Why?

In the Gym:

- A teammate is not following the rules of the game. What would you do?
- A teammate is always dropping the ball and preventing the team from winning the game.
What would you do to encourage the teammate that keeps dropping the ball?
What would you say to the teammate that is complaining?

In the Library:

- You see a younger student carrying a book by its pages. How can you be helpful in this situation?
What does it look like to carry a book? ("Don't drop the baby.")
- A group of your friends is being too loud during "book look". What should you do?

In Art Class:

- You are feeling really good about your art project but the student next to you says it looks 'terrible'.
How should you react in this situation?
- Your friend is not using his/her art materials safely and is leaving the caps off the markers.
What would you do?

In Music Class:

- You hear one of your friends tell another friend that he/she is singing poorly. What would you do?
- The student next to you is squeaking a lot when first learning to play recorder. What should you do?
What shouldn't you do?