Free Criminal Law Expungement Clinic

The Paralegal Studies Program will hold a free "expungement clinic" on Saturday, October 5 from 9:00am to 4:00pm at the Marple Campus. Registration* for the clinic will open Monday, September 16 and run through Friday, September 27.

Paralegal students, under the supervision of attorneys from the Legal Aid of Southeast Pennsylvania, will be assisting individuals from the greater Philadelphia area to determine whether they are eligible to have certain prior arrests or convictions expunged or sealed from one's record. The clinic is for individuals:

- who have arrests without convictions; or
- who have misdemeanor convictions, without new convictions, over 10 years old; or
- who are over 70 years old and their conviction is at least 10 years old; or
- who passed away 3 years ago and post humus expungement is sought.

Please note that individuals must have paid all fines due and completed any probation to qualify for expungement. Please also note that in some instances, certain convictions cannot be expunged and will remain on the record. However, these same convictions could possibly be sealed from the general public.

It is important to note that due to the location of individuals' criminal records, such as Philadelphia and/or outside of Pennsylvania, the clinic may need to refer some individuals to other legal organizations.

For more information, or to register, please contact Keeley Mitchell, Director of Paralegal Studies at 610.359.5261 or KMitchellWallace@dccc.edu.

*While the clinic will try to accommodate drop-ins, registration is preferred.
