

Charles Kelly

Upper Darby School District

Local Author Stacy Hanrahan On Lessons About Being Different

Special Education Teacher Dana Kelly and Second Grade Teacher Sarah Cavalli collaborated to invite local author Stacy Hanrahan to share her book "The Kent Road Kids Learn a Lesson About Being Different" with second grade.

Attendance: If your child is absent, we still need a note. Please email your child's name, date, and reason for absence to mdurso@upperdarbysd.org (MaryJane D'Urso)

Save the Date!

MLK DAY

1/18/2021

No school in observance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday.

Hybrid Model Begins

1/19/2021

AM and PM cohorts return to building for hybrid learning.

Material Pick Up

1/27/2021

Materials will be given at Stonehurst Elementary from 8:30-11:00am & 1:00-3:30pm

Student Artists Made Comic Strip Art

Fifth through third grade artists made their own comic strips in Art class with Mrs. Roberts. Student artists first made their own characters and then made a story in the comic strip style in Google Slides. These are a few examples of the great work students are making.

January 27th
Material Pick Up at Stonehurst Elementary

On Wednesday, January 27th at Stonehurst Elementary School the latest material pick up will take place from 8:30-11:00 am and from 1:00-3:30 pm. If your child is returning back into the school building, their supplies will be given to them. These supplies are required for their classes. Please pick up materials for your child's success in school.

BOOK THE PERFECT VIRTUAL AUTHOR VISIT WITH STACY HANRAHAN !!!

Whether teaching virtually or in school, The Kent Road Kids Learn A Lesson About Being Different is the ideal classroom companion to introduce important lessons about kindness and acceptance through an inspirational story.

The book can easily be adapted to any Zoom or virtual learning environment.

Lessons that inspire children through stories last a lifetime.

For more information and to schedule a virtual author visit, contact Stacy Hanrahan at stacyhan1210@gmail.com

Please consider recommending The Kent Road Kids Learn A Lesson About Being Different to your students and colleagues.

Now Available On Amazon & BarnesandNoble.com!!!

The Kent Road Kids Learn A Lesson About Being Different is the first in a series of inspirational stories based on actual events.

Living with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) can be very challenging. John's physical challenges prevent him from ever scoring the game winning goal in the street hockey game that he watches from his front porch. But he dreams of being part of the action. He dreams of being part of the team.

This heartwarming story takes you on a journey into how John realizes his dream of being part of the team in a light hearted and clever way.

In a world where being different can be very isolating, The Kent Road Kids come together to include John and to embrace and celebrate his differences.

Paperback ISBN: 978-078722940
Hardcover ISBN: 978-0679420063

Hardcover and paperback available on Amazon and Barnes & Noble.com