Pennsylvania's Urban Schools Call for Equitable Funding in Simultaneous Statewide Press Conferences
*The Faces of Urban Education – Student Futures in the Balance

When: Tuesday, March 28, 2023 – 9:00 a.m.

Press conferences will be held during the morning across the state.

Where: Upper Darby School District
Upper Darby High School
601 N. Lansdowne Avenue, Drexel Hill 19026

Press Conferences will be held in the following five locations: East Allegheny School District, Bethlehem Area School District, Johnstown Area School District, School District of Lancaster, Upper Darby School District. School officials from across the state will gather at these five locations.

Details: The Pennsylvania League of Urban Schools (PLUS), a caucus of the Pennsylvania Association of School Administrators (PASA) consisting of 29 school districts, will hold a simultaneous statewide press conference to call attention to the need for charter reform and funding inequities that are dramatically impacting children who attend urban schools.

As the state legislature holds hearings on the Governor's proposed budget, the state's urban schools are weighing in on behalf of their students, staff, and communities.

Parking: Parking will be limited to guest speakers and the press.

Building Entrance: Please enter through the Performing Arts Center located on N. Lansdowne Avenue. Be prepared to present photo ID or a press pass.
