UPPER DARBY SCHOOL DISTRICT EXTENDS GRAB AND GO FOOD PROGRAM FOR UPPER DARBY AREA FAMILIES

Upper Darby High School provides free meals for Upper Darby School District area families at nine (9) sites throughout the Upper Darby School District area

Based on feedback from their school community, the Upper Darby School District has extended its Grab and Go times to pick up grab-and-go meals outside our buildings. The new times will be 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Monday through Friday. The elementary school pick-up locations will remain the same as per the attached Food Preparation and Delivery Response Plan: Bywood, Stonehurst Hills, Charles Kelly, Highland Park, Garrettford, Hillcrest, Primos, Westbrook Park, and Aronimink Elementary School. Find below pertinent information regarding the program.

Who are these meals for?

The meals are for ANY child, school-aged or younger, who lives in the Upper Darby community.

Are all meals free?

Yes, all breakfast and lunch meals are free.

Who may pick up the meals?
