Weekly Newsletter

Hello Parents,

It has been a busy and blustery week here at Westbrook Park. We finally had to start wearing our coats outside after what seemed like endless summer weather. We read about the upcoming World Series of baseball and even made brackets to predict who the winning team would be. It seemed to be an even split between Boston and Milwaukee! We also made baseball caps out of sugar cookies, cupcakes and icing. The recipe was a lot of fun and everyone enjoyed it. We also took our second to last trip to the Upper Darby High School pool for swimming. The final trip will be on November 14th. Looking ahead, I plan on having the student carve a pumpkin next week. We will also be celebrating Red Ribbon Week, which focuses on the dangers of drug usage. Each day has a theme, so please take a look at the paper I'm sending home today if you would like your child to participate. Have a great weekend!

Sincerely,
Jason Gonzalez
