

Corwin Youth Equity Stewardship (YES!) Registration Form – Onsite Events

The Youth Equity Stewardship (YES!) program (the “Program”) is an arts-based series provided by Corwin Press, Inc. (“Corwin”) that ignites a creative energy in students to lead social change. Participants will expand their view of leadership, heighten their awareness of community, and gain knowledge and empathy to support the kind of action they wish to take to make a positive impact in their school community and beyond. Days will include music to set the tone for creativity and trust, and end artistically with participants sharing their voices, reflections, and stories.

How will students be engaged in YES! workshops?

- The YES! workshops are led by two certified YES! consultants and will include at least two school/district staff members (teachers, counselors, and/or administrators).
- The school/district staff will supervise the students throughout the program and its activities and will respond in accordance with school/district policies.
- The school/district has approved all aspects of the program including its agenda and activities.
- The YES! participants are expected to respectfully communicate and engage in appropriate interactions with other participants and with the YES! consultants.
