The Virtual 2020 Pennsylvania Community of Practice Transition Conference

Together Towards Tomorrow

Description

Each year the PA Community of Practice Transition Conference brings together a diverse community of stakeholders to share information, explore resources, and gain knowledge regarding successful practices in secondary transition. The conference attracts more than 800 participants annually. Attendees include educators, students, family members, youth leaders, therapists, agency personnel, vocational rehabilitation staff, and many others. The conference will take place virtually on July 15, 2020.

Focus of Conference

The primary focal points of this year's conference are:

- Promoting success of all youth and young adults by addressing the transition needs of those who are at-risk and struggling
- Empowering families and caregivers with transition knowledge and resources
- Engaging youth and young adults in social interactions and in understanding their potential for post school success
- Building leadership skills of all transition stakeholders to promote successful outcomes of youth and young adults
- Using transition and career assessment, universal design, accommodations, and supports to build the foundation for self-determination and self-advocacy
- Linking transition, behavioral health, and healthy lifestyles to promote success in adult life by empowerment through self-determination and self-advocacy
- Showcasing evidence-based and effective practices with youth outcome data
- Building and supporting community partnerships and local transition coordinating councils

The conference will feature:

- Keynote presentations
- Twenty-four breakout sessions
- Family and youth engaging sessions

On-line Registration

All participants should register for this PaTTAN-sponsored event by visiting our website at: <http://www.pattan.net>. Click training calendar and go to July. If you prefer, you may email the registration form to Paula Quinn, pquinn@pattan.net

Jack Berkenstock, The Bodhana Group
Colleen Madrigale, Community Services Group

D-05 Use of Video Modeling as an Instructional Approach to Teach Transition Skills: A Review

(Employment)

This research examined video modeling as an intervention to teach individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) skills related to post-school outcomes. Authors evaluated ten intervention studies with the Council for Exceptional Children's (2014) standards to determine if video modeling can be considered an evidence-based practice to teach individuals with ASD skills for transition.

Alyssa Godown, Lehigh University

Kyleigh Ivory, Lehigh University

D-06 Never Let Go of Your Dreams

(Youth Engagement)

This session details Ben's journey through the maze of Autism. It features Ben's resilience working through diagnosis, finding appropriate services, academic struggles, and social understanding to becoming an autism advocate. His "Benergy" for life is contagious and this humorous, passion filled presentation will inspire and encourage.

Benjamin Hartranft, Advocate

Sandy Hartranft, Advocate

3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. - Closing Keynote Presentation

KN2 The Rhythm Within

Through living with a physical disability and learning to accomplish tasks in a unique way, Jonah has a message to share. The message is clear, we ALL have special needs. We ALL deal with unique challenges. And we ALL have the opportunity to face those challenges, learn lessons from facing them, and teach others what we learn. Jonah has competed in a triathlon, climbed the tallest mountain in Colorado, and rode his bicycle across Iowa, all because he refuses to use his challenges as an excuse not to succeed! This talk will be fun and inspire you to not limit yourself based on your challenges.

Jonah Berger, Motivational Speaker

3:15 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. - Break
