ADHD in Adolescents

Adolescence is a time of changing preferences, abilities, and demands. In this session, participants will explore the changing needs and challenges facing students with ADHD as they enter their middle and high school years. We will examine specific academic and social expectations in the school setting and the need for developing independence. An emphasis will be spent on the development and strengthening of executive functioning skills and strategies beneficial to helping students succeed.

To register for this session, contact Nora Connell 610-938-9000 ext. 2263 or email nconnell@dciu.org

** The content of this workshop is geared toward parents. There will be no Act 48 or continuing education credit offered if a professional chooses to attend this workshop.
